

UNIVERSAL FELLOWSHIP OF METROPOLITAN COMMUNITY CHURCHES

DISSOLUTION OF HOLY UNION

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This is to certify that we, the undersigned, after much prayer, personal effort, and counseling, have determined that we are unable to resolve the extensive differences within our relationship. We affirm that we will be unable to reconcile these differences and that they are having an adverse effect on our Christian growth due to the attitudes that have developed. We further affirm that we now part in Christian Love and without rancor or animosity, resolving to speak well of each other and to cherish the love we have shared as a gift of God.

Therefore, be it known that we do hereby request a dissolution of our Holy Union performed by a Professional Minister in the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches on the 25th day of June, 1983, in the City of Boston and the State/Province of Massachusetts, by the Reverend Marge Ragone. Signed this 25th day of June, 1983, in the City/Town of Boston, and the State/Province of MA.

- 1) Jail M. Vieira
 - 2) Barbara Selman
- NON-CONTESTED

I, the undersigned Professional Minister in the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches, after prayer and consultation with the above individuals, have determined to the best of my ability that the foregoing statements and conditions are true and do affirm that the Holy Union described above is hereby dissolved and the records of the Church are to be so marked.

☐ I personally officiated at the Holy Union.

☒ I act as an agent for the Minister who officiated at the Holy Union.

Signed: Margaret Thel Ragone Date: 6/26/83

.....
INSTRUCTIONS: For clarity, except for signatures, all information is to be typed and names are to be typed below the signature lines. Three (3) copies are to be distributed as follows: One to each of the two individuals involved, and one to the Church where the Holy Union is recorded. If one member of the Holy Union is not able to be located after a search, type "In Absentia" on the signature line. If one member refuses to sign but does not protest the action, type "Non-Contested" on the signature line. If one member objects to the action and refuses to sign, but the Minister determines the action should be taken for the spiritual and emotional welfare of the individuals, type "In Protest" on the signature line. In any of the above cases, a concerted effort must be made to deliver a copy of this document to the non-signing party.

DO NOT send a copy of this form to the International Offices of UFMCC.

- 2) Kimberly L. Little (In absentia)

I, the undersigned Professional Clergy in the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches, after prayer and consultation with the above individuals, have determined to the best of my ability that the foregoing statements and conditions are true and do affirm that the Holy Union described above is hereby dissolved and the records of the Church are to be so marked.

☐ I personally officiated at the Holy Union.

☒ I act as an agent for the Clergy who officiated at the Holy Union.

Signed: Rev. Marge Ragone Date: May 1, 1995

INSTRUCTIONS: For clarity, except for signatures, all information is to be typed and names are to be typed below the signature lines. Three (3) copies are to be distributed as follows: One to each of the two individuals involved, and one to the Church where the Holy Union is recorded. If one member of the Holy Union is not able to be located after a search, type "In Absentia" on the signature line. If one member refuses to sign but does not protest the action, type "Non-Contested" on the signature line. If one member objects to the action and refuses to sign, but the Clergy determines the action should be taken for the spiritual and emotional welfare of the individuals, type "In Protest" on the signature line. In any of the above cases, a concerted effort must be made to deliver a copy of this document to the non-signing party.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This is to certify that we, the undersigned, after much prayer, personal effort, and counselling, have determined that we are unable to resolve the extensive differences within our relationship. We affirm that we will be unable to reconcile these differences and that they are having an adverse effect on our Christian growth due to the attitudes that have developed. We further affirm that we now part in Christian Love and without rancor or animosity, resolving to speak well of each other and to cherish the love we shared as a gift of God.

Therefore, be it known that we do hereby request a dissolution of our Holy Union performed by a Professional Clergy in the Universal Fellowship of Metropolitan Community Churches on the 24th day of September, 19 92, in the City of Birmingham and the State/Province of Alabama, by the Reverend CLIFFORD H. MORRISON JR.. Signed this 1st day of May, 19 95, in the City/Town of Birmingham and the State/Province of Alabama.
